APPOINTMENTS IN THE NAVY.—It seems from a statement, which we find in one of our exchanges, that nearly one-sixth of the officers of the Navy have been taken from Virginia. The list of 1844 shows that of the Captains, in all 08, 14 were from Virginia Commanders, 97, 8 do Lieutenants, 229, 70 do Surgeons, 70, 15

TRIAL OF McCURRY —This man was arraigned in the City Court at Baltimore on Monday. The trial excited great attention, and the court-room was crowded. Out of one hundred and ten jurors called, seventy-nine were challenged for cause, and nineteen peremptorily. A question was raised as to the capacity of a member of the Odd Fellow's Association to sit upon the jury, the deceased (Mr. Roux) having belonged to that body. Triers were appointed, and they decided that an Odd Fellow was not disqualified. The jury having been sworn and the indictment read, the Court edjourned of the following day.

RUMORED MURDER.—It was reported at Bristol Ferry yesterday morning that the body of Stephen Durfee, of Fall River, had been found shot, with his throat cut, about three miles north of Stone bridge, in Tiverton. He was a contractor for stone, and left Newport on Saturday evening for home, with $1500 on his person. We have not been able to gather any more particulars, and hope the rumor may prove false.—Providence Journal, March 11.

FROM THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI.—The steamer Lynx arrived this morning from Galena. She is the first steambost from beyond the Rapids this season—She resports the river clear of ice, with four feet water on both rapids. The river was falling alonly at Galena the day before yesterday, but swelling in the vicinity of the lower rapids. The L brought down 2,224 pigs of lead, which is the first receipt from above this season.—St. Louis Era, March 1

New Brunswick.—The House of Assembly of New Brunswick, by a vote of 22 to 9, have passed a resolution which declares that the present executive council of the province does not possess the confidence of the House or the country at large. This was followed by an address to her majesty—passed by a vote of 24 to 6—which sets forth the majesty—passed by a vote of 24 to 6—which sets forth the majesty—maked is executive council, the governor conclusing to keep him in office against their wish.
